Basic Rope Safety and Emergencies Management Jul 17 2022 This is the workshop manual that goes alongside the Strathclyde Open Rope Exchange session on Basic Rope Safety & Emergencies Management. This book is aimed at the safe practice of rope arts. Topics covered: Safety equipment you should own - covering safety shears, line cutters, first aid kits with a rope safety focus. Asking the right questions to new partners - covering how much you need to know about someone's physical and mental health whilst respecting their personal boundaries. Setting up a safe play environment - covering how to play safely without losing the atmosphere both at home and in public environments. Safe words, safe signs and checking in - covering how setting up a language for communication of "all is well" can enhance all partners' experience Common problems encountered in rope bondage - covering circulation issues, identifying problematic pressure areas, "spacing out" vs worrisome reduced consciousness and simple injuries Mental and emotional first aid - covering how to communicate effectively about the non-physical side of rope and deal with difficult emotions. Cutting the rope vs untying - covering situations where both approaches are either exactly the right or wrong thing to do. Safe removal of tight bindings - covering the practicalities of removing ligatures without causing injury Practical management of panic - covering giving helpful support to a partner experiencing acute emotional crisis Loss of consciousness - covering simple faint, a non-communicating partner and sudden collapse The non-breathing collapsed partner - covering how to respond to a life threatening emergency and description of Hands Only CPR. This manual does not qualify any person to deliver emergency care nor does it constitute formal instruction in first aid or life support.

Developing Applications Using Outlook 2000, CDO, Exchange, and Visual Basic Mar 01 2021 "This is the 'must have' book for programming with Outlook and CDO. This book provides the details, tips, and cautions that can save you time and frustration when building collaborative applications. So if you like 'the best' in your technical library, get this book." --Deborah Kurata, InStep Technologies, Inc. Written for IT developers who build collaborative and workflow applications, this book provides a comprehensive reference to working with Microsoft's powerful collaborative development environment, including Outlook 2000, Exchange Server, Visual Basic, and the Collaboration Data Objects (CDO) Library. It demonstrates ways in which these technologies can be tied together into effective business solutions--from small-scale groupware to large-scale enterprise-wide systems. Developing Applications using Outlook 2000, CDO, Exchange, and Visual Basic offers an overview of the Microsoft collaborative landscape, and then examines each element of that environment in detail. Numerous examples showcase the applications made possible with these technologies and demonstrate VBScript coding techniques. You will find in-depth information on such important topics as: properties, methods, and events available in Outlook 97, 98, and 2000 the Outlook 2000 object model working with Outlook 2000 mail, calendar, task, and address book capabilities VBA and COM add-ins using Outlook Forms and VBScript Outlook web access the Forms 2.0 to HTML converter tool the CDO rendering object model Exchange agents and routing objects In addition, this book shows how a number of outside technologies can extend the capabilities of the Outlook/Exchange development environment, including Active Directory (ADSI) services, SQL Server, and ActiveX Data Objects (ADO). The examples include approving purchase order reports using Exchange, maintaining a corporate directory using Outlook and SQL Server, and building an eCommerce application with Exchange and SQL Server. Alison's Automotive Repair Manual Jun 04 2021 A widow in her mid-thirties, Alison has been in mourning for two years. She lives in West Virginia with her sister and brother-in-law, and they are urging her to get on with her life and move back home. Alison promises to leave-just as soon as she renovates a nearly ruined 1976 Corvette rusting in their garage. Problem is, she doesn't know the first thing about cars, and the townspeople are reluctant to have a woman messing with automotive parts.
